

Aktiver Wortschatz

Name: _____ Klasse: _____ Datum: _____

Topic 1 – Global youth

Seite 10

to compare (to/with sth.)	[kəm'peə]	vergleichbar sein (mit etw.), sich vergleichen lassen (mit etw.)	How do teenagers' lives in Africa compare with teenagers' lives in Austria?
----------------------------------	-----------	--	---

Seite 11

by (the) numbers	[baɪ'nʌmbəz]	nach Zahlen	Let's take a look at economic opportunity by the numbers.
to fear	[fɪə]	(be)fürchten; sich fürchten vor	Why do you fear making telephone calls? It's fine once you get used to it.
to hang (up) (hung, hung)	[hæŋ]	(auf)hängen	Please hang up your towel when it's wet.

Unit 1: This is where we belong

Words in context

Seite 12

multicultural	[ˌmʌlti'kʌltʃərəl]	multikulturell	In Austria, we live in a multicultural society.
migration	[maɪ'greɪʃn]	Migration, Zu-/Aus-/Abwanderung	What are the effects of migration on European society?
makeup	['meɪkʌp]	Aufbau	The government's racial makeup does not reflect that of society.
to accelerate	[ək'seləreɪt]	(sich) beschleunigen	If population growth starts to accelerate, we may not be able to feed everyone.
homeland	['həʊmlənd]	Heimat(land)	I miss my homeland, but I have a better life here.
foreign	['fɔrən]	ausländisch, Auslands-, fremd	You shouldn't treat foreign people any differently than those who were born here.
culture clash	['kʌltʃə klæʃ]	Kulturkonflikt	Is there any way to prevent culture clashes in multicultural areas?
diversity	[daɪ'vɜ:səti]	Vielfalt	More and more businesses are aware of the need for diversity in the workforce.
outsider	[ˌaʊt'saɪdə]	AußenseiterIn	When I first moved here, I felt like an outsider. No one spoke to me.
acceptance	[ək'septəns]	Akzeptanz, Annahme	She's doing her best to gain acceptance in the community.
newcomer	['nju:kʌmə]	Neuling, Neuankömmling	I always try to be friendly to newcomers.
tension	['tenʃn]	Spannung	You could feel the tension in the air.
suspicion	[sə'spɪʃn]	Misstrauen, Verdacht	The man's strange behaviour raised suspicion, so the police brought him in for questioning.
immigrant	['ɪmɪgrənt]	Einwanderer, Einwanderin, MigrantIn	Robert is an immigrant. His parents are from India but they now all live in England.

Aktiver Wortschatz

peer group	[ˈpiə gru:p]	Altersgruppe, Bezugsgruppe, Umfeld	Don't just do whatever your peer group do: be yourself!
host	[həʊst]	GastgeberIn	Hosts should be welcoming to their guests.
hatred	[ˈheɪtrɪd]	Hass	There is no place for hatred in our society.
violence	[ˈvaɪələns]	Gewalt	The argument ended in violence, as a fight broke out.
persecution	[ˌpɜːsɪˈkjuːʃn]	Verfolgung	Even today, many minority groups still suffer persecution.
vulnerable	[ˈvʌlnərəbəl]	verletzlich, verwundbar	As a woman, I sometimes feel vulnerable walking home at night.
difficulty	[ˈdɪfɪkəlti]	Schwierigkeit(en)	I had difficulty understanding him. It was very hard to hear him.
to find one's feet	[ˌfaɪnd wʌnz ˈfi:t]	sich zurechtfinden, sich orientieren	When you start a new job, it may take a few weeks to find your feet, but don't worry: you'll be fine!
unfamiliar	[ˌʌnfəˈmiːliə]	unbekannt, ungewohnt	He found himself in an unfamiliar area, so he got out a map.
surroundings pl	[səˈraʊndɪŋz]	Umgebung	The house is situated in beautiful surroundings. There is a forest and a large lake.
grateful (to sb.)	[ˈɡreɪtfl]	(jdm.) dankbar	I'm so grateful for your help: thank you.
host country	[ˈhəʊst kʌntri]	Gastland	What are the responsibilities of the host country towards people that migrate into them?
unable	[ʌnˈeɪbəl]	unfähig, nicht in der Lage	Due to a doctor's appointment, she was unable to attend the meeting.
barrier	[ˈbæriə]	Barriere, Hindernis	For many immigrants, language is a barrier to living a full life.
to hold on to sth.	[ˌhəʊld ˈɒn tə]	an etw. festhalten	I held onto my family's Indian roots by learning to cook traditional food from our village.
discrimination	[dɪˌskrɪmɪˈneɪʃn]	Diskriminierung	Discrimination because of the way you look can be a big problem in schools.
neither	[ˈnaɪðə]	keine/r, keins (von beiden)	She considered the two options and decided that neither was possible.
sudden	[ˈsʌdn]	plötzlich	There was a sudden noise. We weren't expecting it.
unavoidable	[ˌʌnəˈvɔɪdəbəl]	unvermeidlich	Disagreement is unavoidable. The important thing is how you deal with it.
optimism	[ˈɒptɪmɪzəm]	Zuversicht, Optimismus	He is known for his optimism. He always looks on the bright side.
to resist sth.	[rɪˈzɪst]	etw. widerstehen, sich gegen etw. wehren	I tried to resist her demands, but in the end I did what she wanted.
to prevent sb/sth. from doing sth.	[prɪˈvent]	jdn./etw. daran hindern, etw. zu tun	If I had known this, I would have prevented you from doing it.

© 2020 Cornelsen Verlag GmbH, Berlin und VERITAS-Verlag, Linz. Alle Rechte vorbehalten.

A 'Dreamers in the USA'

Seite 14

to protect	[prəˈtekt]	(be)schützen	Crash helmets protect your head in an accident.
border	[ˈbɔːdə]	(Landes-)Grenze, Grenz-	There are people queuing at the border. They want to come and live in this country.

Aktiver Wortschatz

so that	[səʊ 'ðæt]	damit	I opened the window so that I could get some fresh air in my room.
confused	[kən'fju:zd]	verwirrt, irritiert	If you feel confused during a lesson, you should ask your teacher for help.
to remind	[rɪ'maɪnd]	daran erinnern	Please can you remind me to buy some milk? Otherwise I will forget.

Seite 15

to announce	[ə'naʊns]	ankündigen, bekanntgeben	They have just announced that they will get married in the summer.
--------------------	-----------	--------------------------	--

Seite 16

to be frightened (of)	['fraɪnd]	Angst haben (vor)	When I was in hospital, I was really frightened. Luckily I'm better now.
------------------------------	-----------	-------------------	--

Seite 17

to report back	[rɪ'pɔ:t 'bæk]	Bericht erstatten, berichten über	Report back to me when you know more.
unemployment	[ˌʌnɪm'plɔɪmənt]	Arbeitslosigkeit	What can we do to reduce long-term unemployment?

B A multicultural flatshare

Seite 18 Transkript

mining	['maɪnɪŋ]	Bergbau	Mining was once a very important industry in England and Wales.
engineering	[endʒɪ'nɪərɪŋ]	Ingenieurwesen, Maschinenbau	She is studying engineering. She wants to be an engineer.
dish	[dɪʃ]	Gericht, Speise, Hauptgericht	The meal will include several dishes, each from a different part of the world.

Seite 19

to advertise	['ædvətəɪz]	werben (für)	Should fast food companies be allowed to advertise their products on children's TV channels?
---------------------	-------------	--------------	--

Seite 20

attitude	['ætɪtju:d]	Einstellung, Haltung	My parents and I have different attitudes to social media. I love it and use it every day, but they say it's a waste of time.
to click	[klɪk]	klicken	Don't click on the advert – it will take you to a different page!

Seite 21

in charge (of)	[ɪn 'tʃɑ:dʒ]	verantwortlich (für), zuständig (für)	The manager put me in charge of this project, so I will make the final decisions.
-----------------------	--------------	---------------------------------------	---

Aktiver Wortschatz

Business pages

Seite 22

to smile	[smaɪl]	lächeln	She smiled warmly as she greeted me.
the big deal	[bɪg 'di:l]	das Besondere, die große Sache	I don't understand why you're so excited about this – what's the big deal?
silence	['saɪləns]	Stille, Ruhe, Schweigen	There must be silence in the exam hall at all times.
stranger	['streɪndʒə]	Fremde/r	Parents often teach their children not to talk to strangers.
embarrassing	[ɪm'bærəsɪŋ]	peinlich, unangenehm	When I fell over, it was very embarrassing. Everyone laughed at me.
unfriendly	[ʌn'frendli]	unfreundlich	If you don't respond to small talk, you might appear unfriendly.
to ignore	[ɪg'no:]	ignorieren, nicht beachten	I ignored her because I didn't want to speak to her.
plain	[pleɪn]	einfach, schlicht	She wore a plain blue dress that made her look remarkably pretty.
to recognize	['rekəɡnaɪz]	anerkennen	He recognized that he had upset her, so he apologized.
robot	['rəʊbɒt]	Roboter	Do you think that shop assistants will be replaced by robots in the future?
harmless	['hɑ:mləs]	harmlos, ungefährlich	It's quite a harmless sport. It's not dangerous.
to upset (upset, upset)	[ʌp'set]	aufregen, ärgern	Your comments really upset me. Can we talk about it?
belief	[br'i:lɪf]	Glaube, Überzeugung	Everyone should be allowed to have their own beliefs, as long as they don't impact negatively on others.
value	['vælju:]	Wert	I think tolerance is the most important value in our society.
to experience	[ɪk'spɪəriəns]	erleben	I want you to experience this too.
agreeable fml	[ə'ɡri:əbl]	angenehm, umgänglich	I think he is a very agreeable young man.
strategy	['strætədʒɪ]	Strategie, Taktik	The company needs a new strategy for next year.
response	[rɪ'spɒns]	Reaktion, Antwort	I was so shocked by what she said that I could not think of a response.
controversial	[,kɒntrə'vɜ:ʃl]	kontrovers, umstritten	Do not discuss controversial topics at work or social events.
to switch topics	[swɪtʃ 'tɒpɪks]	das Thema wechseln	"Hmm, I'm not sure I agree with you. Shall we switch topics?"
to pay attention (to)	[peɪ ə'tenʃn]	aufpassen, achten (auf)	During conversations, pay attention to the other person's body language as well as their words.

Seite 23 Transkript

accent	['æksent]	Akzent	She has a strong Scottish accent. I can't understand what she's saying.
you're welcome	[jɔ: 'welkəm]	gern (geschehen), bitte (schön)	"Thank you for your help" – "You're welcome."

Seite 23

politics pl	['pɒlətɪks]	Politik	You shouldn't talk about politics at dinner parties.
--------------------	-------------	---------	--